

(e) Discretionary grant project approval. If a State pays out its own funds prior to the earlier of:

(1) The day a Federal agency officially notifies the State in writing that a discretionary grant project has been approved, or

(2) The date that a Federal agency is otherwise obligated in law to pay the discretionary grant project to the State, the Federal Government will not incur an interest liability, notwithstanding any other provision of this section.

(f) Authorizations and appropriations for future years. If a State pays out its own funds prior to the availability of Federal funds that have been authorized or appropriated for a future Federal fiscal year, the Federal Government will not incur an interest liability, notwithstanding any other provision of this section.

(g) Reverse flow programs. With respect to programs for which the Federal Government makes payments on behalf of a State, such as Supplemental Security Income, the Federal Government will incur an interest liability if State funds are in a Federal Government account prior to the day a Federal agency pays out funds for program purposes. A Federal interest liability will accrue from the day State funds are credited to the Federal Government's account to the day the Federal agency pays out the State funds for program purposes.

§ 205.12 State interest liabilities.

(a) General. A State will incur an interest liability to the Federal Government if Federal funds are in a State account prior to the day the State pays out funds for program purposes. A State interest liability will accrue from the day Federal funds are credited to a State account to the day the State pays out the Federal funds for program purposes.

(b) Refunds. A State will incur an interest liability to the Federal Government on a refund transaction of Federal funds. A State interest liability will accrue from the day the refund is credited to a State account to the day the refund is either paid out for program purposes or credited to a Federal Government account. However, a State may adopt a transaction threshold not exceeding $10,000, below which the State will not incur an interest liability on a refund transaction.

(c) Reverse flow programs. With respect to programs for which the Federal Government makes payments on behalf of a State, such as Supplemental Security Income, a State will incur an interest liability to the Federal Government if a Federal agency pays out Federal funds for program purposes on behalf of the State. A State interest liability will accrue from the day the Federal agency pays out Federal funds for program purposes to the day State funds are credited to the Federal Government's account.

(d) Exception. Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, a State will not incur an interest liability to the Federal Government if Federal law requires that the interest a State earns on Federal funds must be retained by the State or used for program purposes. This exception shall not be construed to exempt a program from any other provision of this subpart.

§ 205.13 Interest calculation.

(a) State responsibilities. A State shall calculate Federal interest liabilities and State interest liabilities for each program subject to this subpart, except as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Reverse flow programs. A Federal agency shall calculate Federal interest liabilities and State interest liabilities for a program subject to this subpart for which the Federal agency makes payments on behalf of a State, such as Supplemental Security Income.

(c) Start date. Interest liabilities begin accruing the later of July 1, 1993, or the first day of a State's 1994 fiscal year.

(d) Interest rate. The interest rate for all interest liabilities pursuant to this subpart is the annualized rate equal to the average equivalent yields of 13-week Treasury Bills auctioned during a State's fiscal year, except as provided for in paragraph (i) of this section. The FMS will provide this rate to each State.

(e) Interest calculation method and standards. A State shall calculate and report interest liabilities on the basis
